NOTES

UK National Private Pilot Licences are issued by the Civil Aviation Authority in accordance with the provisions of the Air Navigation Order, for the time being in force. All applicants are strongly advised to read the latest SLMG syllabus, which describes in detail the requirements for the grant of a UK National Private Pilot Licence (SLMG) and any relevant Aeronautical Information Circulars before completing this form.

- The Navigation and Skill Test(s) are in addition to minimum 32 hour course of flying training.
- RT Licence: If applying for an RT Licence at the same time please enclose form 'Application for the grant of a Flight Radio Telephony Operator's Licence' and we will forward this to the CAA. If you already hold an RT licence, we DO NOT need a copy.
- Navigation Skill Test should be taken after all theoretical exams and must be taken before the General Skill Test. General Skill Test must be taken after all theoretical exams and appropriate training has been completed. Solo Cross-country flight must be completed after the NST and before the GST.

For holders of licences issued by an ICAO Contracting State claiming credit towards the issue of a NPPL, the NST may be waived if the holder has flown a total of 100 hours as pilot of aeroplanes and also flown a minimum of 5 hours PIC cross-country flight time in UK airspace in the 12 months prior to the date of licence application. Certified log book evidence required.
